

Gospel – Luke 6:36-42

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. 38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be poured into your lap. In fact, the measure with which you measure will be measured back to you."

39 He also told them a parable: "A blind man cannot guide a blind man, can he? Won't they both fall into a pit? 40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher. 41 Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but fail to notice the beam in your own eye? 42 Or how can you tell your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck in your eye,' when you do not see the beam in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck in your brother's eye."

First Lesson – Genesis 50:15-21

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

15When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us and will pay us back in full for all of the evil that we did to him."

16They sent the following message to Joseph: "Before he died your father commanded us, 17'You are to tell Joseph, 'Please forgive the offense of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you.'" Now, please forgive the offense of the servants of the God of your father."

Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

18His brothers also came and fell down in front of him, and they said, "See now, we are your servants."

19Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? 20You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring this to pass and to keep many people alive, as it is this day. 21Now therefore do not be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones." He comforted them and spoke to them in a kind way.

Second Lesson – Romans 8:18-23

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

18For I conclude that our sufferings at the present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is going to be revealed to us. 19In fact, creation is waiting with eager longing for the sons of God to be revealed. 20For creation was subjected to futility, not by its own will, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in the hope 21that even creation itself will be set free from slavery to corruption, in order to share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

22For we know that all of creation is groaning with birth pains right up to the present time. 23And not only creation, but also we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we eagerly await our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body.

Jesus be with you, Leah, Brandon, and Bentley!

Quarterly Voters' Meeting - Today, after the 10:30 am service, we will be holding our Quarterly Voters' Meeting. At this meeting we will be holding elections and voting on our 2018-2019 budget. All voting members are strongly encouraged to attend.

Welcome Basket - We would like to put together welcome baskets for our new teachers, Rachel Kramer and Jacob Andersen. Since they will be arriving at the end of the month, we would like to gather monetary donations and gift cards starting today. This gives us the ability to purchase some items for use upon their arrivals and, also, put a basket together for their installation. If you would like to donate, please give your donations to Laurie Conklin or Angie Hintz.

Lord's Supper - is celebrated today in the 10:30 am service. Our Savior gives us his body and blood along with the bread and wine for our forgiveness in this Blessed Sacrament. Because he also wants us to examine ourselves prior to communing (1 Corinthians 11:23-29), and that those who commune with one another be united in doctrine and practice (1 Corinthians 10:16-17; Romans 16:1-17; 2 John 9-11), we respectfully ask that those who are members of Emmaus, or members of congregations in fellowship with the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod, commune with us this morning. If you are not a member and would like to join us for communion, please speak with Pastor Else, so we can set up a time to study what God's Word has to say to us concerning Lord's Supper and church fellowship. Thank you for your understanding.

Bathrooms/Baby Changing Tables - are located in the Fellowship Hall, which is the large building in front of the church. (The building closest to the parking lot) There are changing tables in both bathrooms for your convenience. The bathrooms are located on the east end of the building.

Children's Bulletins and Books - We have special bulletins for our children each Sunday. The ushers will have them when they are handing out the weekly bulletins. Please feel free to ask them for this bulletin. Crayons are also available from the ushers. Christian books are also available for ages 0 to 10 + to look at or read during the service! Please ask an usher to direct you to the books so you or your child may pick out an age appropriate book bag or book.
