

Second Lesson – 1 Peter 3:8-15 (continued)

13Who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good?
14But even if you should happen to suffer because of righteousness, you are blessed. Do not be afraid of what they fear, and do not be troubled. 15But regard the Lord, the Christ, as holy in your hearts. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give a reason for the hope that is in you.

Gospel – Luke 5:1-11

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

One time, while the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. 2He saw two boats there along the lakeshore. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3Jesus got into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from the shore. He sat down and began teaching the crowds from the boat. 4When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a catch."

5Simon answered him, "Master, we worked hard all through the night and caught nothing. But at your word I will let down the nets." 6When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets were about to tear apart. 7They signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, because I am a sinful man, Lord." 9For Peter and all those with him were amazed at the number of fish they had caught, 10and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, "Have no fear. From now on you will be catching people."

11After they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

First Lesson – Jeremiah 1:4-10

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

4The word of the LORD came to me.

5Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, and before you were born, I set you apart.

I appointed you to be a prophet to the nations.

6But I said, "Ah, LORD God! I really do not know how to speak! I am only a child!"

7The LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a child.' You must go to everyone to whom I send you and say whatever I command you. 8Do not be afraid of them, because I am with you, and I will rescue you, declares the LORD."

9Then the LORD stretched out his hand and touched my mouth. The LORD said to me:

There! I have now placed my words in your mouth.

10Look, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.

Second Lesson – 1 Peter 3:8-15

Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)

8Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another. Show sympathy, brotherly love, compassion, and humility. 9Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult. Instead, speak a blessing, because you were called for the purpose of inheriting a blessing. 10Indeed:

Let the one who wants to love life and to see good days

keep his tongue from evil

and his lips from saying anything deceitful.

11Let him turn from evil and do what is good.

Let him seek peace and pursue it.

12For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their requests.

But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.
